

Seminar Part G

Sanitation, Hot Water Safety and Water Efficiency

About Part G

The new edition of Part G (Sanitation, Hot Water Safety and Water Efficiency) which came into force on 6th April 2010 in support of the Building Regulations 2000 will bring about significant changes to the design of hot and cold water supplies in buildings.

This half day seminar is intended to give an understanding of the changes to Part G and how they are applied to building work.
